Welcome to my newsletter.*

For those of you who don't know me, I am Tracey Lee, an intuitive jewelry designer and spiritual alchemist. I weave wire and crystals into unique artistic treasures that can be worn as tools of focus for spiritual healing and empowerment. My crystal creations are intended for soul support, and to remind each wearer of how their unique energies can awaken the creativity, imagination, and personal power needed to achieve the goals that align with their soul's highest purpose; and a more meaningful life. I am both honored and grateful to do this work. Thank you for your interest and support as we journey together to more empowered, healthier, and happier lives.

Inspired Creations

Made with: Azurite Shattuckite Druzy in copper
"SHE'S SO DIVINE"
Inspired by: the ability of a woman to be both Goddess and Dragon/Demon simultaneously. We inspire love and terror by simply existing in this beautiful seductive shell that can inspire worlds beyond worlds and unfathomable destruction. Look at her, do you see a goddess or a demon?
Available $151.00 + tax & shipping

Made with: Azurite Malachite in copper
"HER CROWN OF GLORY"
Inspired by: her beautiful locks of spiritual power and flowing beauty. Her hair has been a source of power and spirituality since the beginning of time; so much so that some are forced to cover it for it's ability to make men weak and powerless against their own lust and corruptible behaviours.
Available- $171 + tax & shipping

Made with: Citrine in Angel Aura Quartz in Sterling Silver and 12kt Gold-filled wire
"SHE'S BUZY"
Inspired by: the Queen Bees, Our Mother's Nature, and the Courageous Angels in our world to whom we owe our lives and livelihoods.
Available - $222 + tax & shipping

Made with: Tripache Amethyst wrapped in sterling silver
"INFINITE WISDOM"
Inspired by: Wisdom shared is wisdom gained.
Available- $202 + tax & shipping

Rewarding Loyalty

Small businesses like mine could not survive without loyalty from customers. Loyal customers are the heart, lungs, and inspiration of my artistry.

This is why I have chosen to start a recognition and rewards program.

I will chose one member every 6 months to become a member of this exclusive group of empowered women to spotlight, and offer a package of rewards to that will last for an entire year.

Once named, these special women will recieve *recognition for their amazing support of my business, *a write up on how they inspire me to be published on my website and newsletter, *a 30% discount on all purchases from my Etsy store, website, collection pieces, or custom commission pieces. (*excludes auction items), *first pick on all New Collection pieces, *a free talismanic crystal beaded bracelet with purchase once a month, and *a talisman created for you, inspired by you and in honor of your energy story and journey of transformation.

All of this recognition and reward will last for 1 full year.

My first selection will be in June.

More to come soon! As always, THANK YOU for supporting my small business.

Testimonials

Thank you for being such a beautiful person and using your God-given talent to spread love and magic through every talisman you made! You are healing people with your work! Your artistry is priceless!

-Kiyandra D.

Wearing one of Tracey's pieces is like wearing a piece of your heart on the outside! Each one mirrors my inner being and just feeds my soul. I can feel myself light up when I wear one. They are each unique and beautiful, but the ones she creates specifically for me are the most special! The quality of her work is apparent, and the love and care that she puts into each one just oozes out! They literally take my breath away!
